

New Member's Award of Merit

NB: the person being nominated is NOT to be advised of his/her nomination.

Purpose

The Award is intended to acknowledge and distinguish those New Members who have obtained their CIRP within the past five years and who have brought excellence to their profession through their leadership and achievements in various aspects of their personal and professional life. The New Member's Award of Merit promotes CAIRP's future leaders by encouraging newer members of the profession to demonstrate standards of best practice, excellence, integrity, innovation, dedication and balance. Candidates should clearly demonstrate their commitment to CAIRP's core values and promote its members as the "Go-to Professionals" for expertise, information and solutions regarding insolvency and restructuring.

Criteria

Recipients of the New Member's Award of Merit will have demonstrated excellence and a special distinction in one or more of the following areas of service and achievement:

Volunteer Leadership in CAIRP – Volunteer leadership in service and achievement in contributing towards the advancement of CAIRP as a recognized leader in promoting professional excellence and adherence to ethical practice. To achieve this standard, the recipient will have honoured the values of the Association and participated in undertakings on behalf of the Association in one or more of the following areas: (i) education (through sponsorship, teaching and/or mentoring of articling associates, advancement and further development of the CQP program, oral board process, publication and/or other learning tools to advance knowledge); (ii) advocacy (through thought leadership, student outreach (including to academic institutions), stakeholder communication, global alignment and cooperation with foreign regulators (governing bodies) and aligned professional organizations (such as INSOL, TMA, ABI and others) and/or other media that promote a positive positioning of the Association amongst the key constituents of the insolvency and restructuring field); (iii) professional recognition (through public outreach and education, media outreach, promoting brand recognition and other endeavours at the instance of the Association that align with its core vision and values).

Volunteer Service in Other Community Organizations – Conspicuous volunteer leadership and achievement with charitable, civic, political, and other community-based organizations. To achieve this standard, the recipient will have: (i) demonstrated exceptional stewardship in advancing the interests of the enterprise in a manner consistent with its core vision and values; and (ii) promoted recognition of CAIRP and/or the professionalism associated with being a CIRP through demonstrated leadership, adherence to personal and professional values, and achievement of positive outcomes.
